

CPCF[™]
CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA
COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

The Legacy Society

The Legacy Society is the name for our most prestigious group – all those who have notified us that they have included the Foundation in their estate planning.

It is a special type of person who provides for the future of his or her community. Composed of individuals who have made plans to leave a gift to the Central Pennsylvania Community Foundation, members of the Legacy Society have that special satisfaction that comes with knowing that they have helped make this corner of the world a little better. Or, more simply put, that their life's efforts will continue to make a difference.

Through the Legacy Society of the Central Pennsylvania Community Foundation, such thoughtful and generous decisions can be duly recognized. In honor of those who have informed us of bequests, insurance policies, trusts and other planned gifts that benefit the Foundation, we list their names for the purpose of encouraging others.

We hope that you have taken, or that you will take, the action necessary to become a member of the Legacy Society and thereby leave a legacy of caring for your community. If appropriate, please return this form to the Central Pennsylvania Community Foundation. We will be honored to include you in the future listings of the Society's Members.

For more information on the Legacy Society, other ways to give or any aspect of the Central Pennsylvania Community Foundation, please contact us at 814-944-6102.
